Chapter 1 by Skipper Jo

Dear Diary,

Today I'm 10!!!! Isn't that amazing? Mommy gave me this diary and told me that I should write in it once every ten years. Ten years!! That's sooooooooooooo long. How am I supposed to wait ten years? That's as old as I am!! Wow, I can't imagine how pretty I'll be in ten years!!! I'll be an adult like Mommy and Daddy are!

Maybe in ten years I'll be a princess. Wow! Can you imagine?

Except last time I told Mommy and Daddy that, they said I'd be different because I'm special. I don't know what they were talking about.

Love,

Dina Evelyn Amber Theo-Harper

I've really wanted to see how much I've changed in ten years. I don't know if I should laugh or cry.

I knew nothing.

Everything has changed. I didn't think I'll have this diary by now, but here it is. After all this time. I'm feeling a bit foolish writing this down, but also relieved. I have to tell someone. Someone must know.

Because my name means more than I thought. I actually cause things to happen. And it terrifies me.

Special they said. One in a billion. I think cursed is the right word.
I don't want it. I never did. But how can a girl named Death live a normal life?

This past few years have been a nightmare. I don't know if what I want now is to wake up - or to fall asleep, forever.

Happy birthday to me, I guess,
Dina T.
I hate my full name.
